If you get pocket money by sending newspapers or watering the flowers for a neighbor, you probably know a thing or two about using money. After all, when you've worked that hard, you don't want to spend (26) all on games or toy trains.

Using your money in the right way or (27) some for the future is important. When you grow up, your success (28) depend on how well you manage your money.

It's easier to start these good habits when you're young. Meghan Coyle is (29) business girl. She has made more than $320 (30) two years by walking dogs after school.

"I've been a dog-walker for two years and it's been a lot of fun. I really enjoyed it. My mom never gave me pocket money (31) I had to make money in some other way. Lots of kids don't realize how hard it can be to have a job. It can be hard to keep customers happy. There are some days when it's raining and I would rather be somewhere else, but I still go out with a dog," Coyle said. "Start a business (32) interests you. First, you have to advertise. The easiest and safest way is to talk with neighbors and family friends. After you have the customers, keep your customers happy! Send cards that you make by yourself to them on holidays. That always (33) them. Always be willing to do more than they ask. On holidays, give your customers coupons (优惠券) so that they will keep (34) back to you for your service or products."

Is it (35) to do some work to make pocket money? Now think about it and start your own business!

When my family moved to America in 2010 from a small village in Guangdong, China, we brought not only our suitcase, but also our village rules, customs and culture. One of the (36) is that young people should always respect elders. (37) this rule led to my very first embarrassment (尴尬) in the United States.

I had a part-time job as a (38) in a Chinese restaurant. One time, when I was serving food to a middle-aged couple, the wife asked me how the food could be served so quickly. I told her that I had made sure they got their food quickly because I always (39) the elderly. As soon as I said that, she became (40) at once. My manager, who happened to hear what I said, took me aside and gave me a long lecture about how the Americans dislike the word “old”. I then walked back to the table and say sorry to the wife. After the couple heard my (41), they understood that the problem was caused by cultural differences, so they (42) and were no longer angry.

In my village in China, people are (43) being old. Not so many people live to be seventy or eighty, and people who reach such an age have the (44) knowledge and experience. Young people always respect older people because they know they can learn from their rich experience.

However, in the United States, people think “growing old” is a problem since “old” shows that a person is going to retire or that the body is not working well. Here many people try to keep themselves away from growing old by doing exercises, and women put on makeup (化妆), hoping to look (45). When I told the couple in the restaurant that I respect the elderly, they got angry because this caused them to feel they had failed to stay young. I had told them something they didn't want to hear.

 Subject: Somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico!

Hello again,

We're on holiday! My family won a prize – tickets for a round-world-trip on the Freedom of the Seas! Can you believe it? This is one of the biggest cruise ships in the world – it's huge! It's as long as 37 buses and can carry more than 4,000 passengers. That's a lot of people!

You know that I like to be very active, so at first I thought this cruise was going to be a little boring ... I was so wrong! The ship has an ice-skating rink, an outdoor climbing wall (more than 13 metres high), two swimming pools, a water park and even a boxing ring. But best of all ...the Flowrider! It's a surfing attraction at the top of the ship. I tried it yesterday but I kept falling! I must try again this afternoon.

Mom and Dad were also pretty impressed by the shopping mall on the ship. You've really got to see this wonderful ship – it's truly spectacular. I'll write again when I get home (Sunday) and tell you more about the cruise.

Bye!

Anne

46. The Freedom of the Seas is _____.
 A. a ship with 40,000 passengers B. as long as 37 buses
 C. a water park D. a shopping mall
47. Anne will go on surfing on _____ afternoon.
 A. Monday B. Saturday
 C. Tuesday D. Sunday

48. You can guess the meaning of ‘spectacular (in paragraph 3)’ from the word _____.
- A. wonderful B. interesting
C. boring D. dangerous
49. The surfing attraction is_____.
- A. next to the ice-skating rink
B. inside the ship
C. beside the shopping mall on the ship
D. at the top of the ship
50. The main idea of the e-mail is about_____.
- A. about a surfing attraction
B. about a trip on a cruise ship
C. about a trip to Gulf of Mexico
D. about the life of Anne’s parents

(B)

“When can I get a cell phone?” The answer is when your parents think you need one, though many kids seem to be getting them around age 12 or 13. Some younger kids may have them because their parents see it as a matter of safety and convenience. For example, a kid can call mom and dad when sports practice is over. And a cell phone can give kids almost instant access (快捷通道) to their parents if something goes wrong or they need help. It can give parents quick access to their kids so they can check on them and make sure they’re OK.

If you do get a cell phone, make some rules with your parents, such as how many minutes you're allowed to spend on the phone, when you can use your phone, when the phone must be turned off, and what you will do if someone calls you too often, and so on.

You'll also have to learn to take care of the phone in your life. Keep it charged (充电) and store it in the safe place so it doesn't get lost. And whatever you do, don't use it in the bathroom. I know someone who dropped her phone in the toilet!

51. Parents buy cell phones for their kids because _____.
 - A. they think it is necessary
 - B. they think their kids are old enough
 - C. they have asked the author for advice
 - D. they want to follow their kids wherever they are
52. The author of the passage _____.
 - A. wants to give suggestion to children about using cell phones
 - B. knows nothing about when children can have a cell phone
 - C. may have done a survey on kids using cell phones
 - D. has been a teacher for many years

53. Which of the following is TRUE?
- It is too young for kids of 12 or 13 to get a cell phone.
 - A cell phone is useful for kids and their parents.
 - The author is against the idea of kids to have cell phones.
 - Most kids are considering having cell phones.
54. Who is the passage most probably written by?
- Parents who have bought phones for their kids.
 - Someone who does cell phone business.
 - A teacher who cares most about school safety.
 - Someone who works for children's education.
55. Which of the following might NOT be a rule for kids with a cell phone?
- Keep it on all the time.
 - Make a call if something goes wrong.
 - Don't use it in the bathroom.
 - Take care not to lose it.

When she discovers its secret, her life can never be the same again. Meanwhile, a crazy scientist is busy planning an experiment that could make him a very, very rich man ...	The exciting team is back! But so is the evil(邪恶的) Doctor Max, who has formed a new group of powerful creatures to help him. Can Power-Man, Speedster and Elastico stop him this time?

The second floor window is usually not very high from the ground. It is about twice of the height of an average man. Of course, it is safer to jump a short way than to stay in a burning building.

Windows are also useful when there is a fire. Be sure to keep the door closed. Or smoke and fire may be drawn into the room. Keep your head low at the window to be sure you get fresh air rather than smoke that may leaked (渗) into the room.

On a second or third floor, the best windows for escape are those that open onto a roof. From the roof a person can drop to the ground more safely. Dropping onto cement (水泥) might end in injury. Bushes (灌木丛) and grass can help to break a fall.

61. According to the passage, it is important to_____.
- A. put out the fire in the burning house
 - B. know the ways to escape the fire
 - C. jump off a burning house
 - D. keep the door open
62. Which is possible to escape through the windows (Paragraph 3) ?
- A. If there are some bushes on the ground.
 - B. If you are strong enough.
 - C. If you live on a lower floor.
 - D. If you have a long rope.
63. Which of the following escaping way is NOT right?
- A. You can escape through stairways.
 - B. You can choose fire escapes.
 - C. Escape from the windows that open onto a roof.
 - D. Use a lift to come down at once.
64. Open the window so that _____ if the building is on fire.
- A. you can get fresh air
 - B. you can call for help
 - C. you can easily jump off
 - D. you can be seen first
65. The best title of the passage is “_____”.
- A. Escaping from the Windows
 - B. The Ways to Save Yourself
 - C. Saving Yourself in the Burning House
 - D. Waiting for Help
